The Outlander, Palaces and Jacobites Experience

Our Glasgow Outlander-inspired day tour explores the sets of the famous TV series. Discover Linlithgow Palace, Outlander's Wentworth Prison; see Blackness Castle, the Headquarters of Black Jack Randall; & explore Doune Castle, home of the Clan MacKenzie.

Departing from Glasgow, our Outlander tour travels North-East through the Scottish Lowlands to Doune Castle[£] in Stirlingshire. Doune Castle, known as the home of Outlander's Clan MacKenzie, was also featured in the cult movie Monty Python and the Holy Grail. We stop here with time to explore the castle and its atmospheric grounds. We then continue to Deanston Distillery for a short refreshment break before stopping for photos near the Wallace Monument. We have five minutes here to enjoy the towering stone testimonial to the Scottish legend William Wallace, and catch a glimpse of Stirling Castle.

From the Wallace Monument, we continue in the footsteps of Claire and Jamie to the Royal Burgh of Culross. A tiny village nestled on the coast of Fife, Culross is arguably the best example of a 17th Century village in Scotland. The gardens here were used for Claire's herb garden, and the Mercat Cross in Outlander's Cranesmuir Village. Here we stop with time to explore the village and its cobbled streets.

CULROSS

We then continue to the country home of Callendar House. The house, now a museum, dates to the 14th Century and has ties to the Antonine Wall; Rome's northern frontier in Europe. Inside, you can visit the set of the Duke of Sandringham's kitchen and explore the vast grounds before our tour moves on. We then journey on to the Royal Burgh of Linlithgow. Here you will have time to explore the town and visit Linlithgow Palace[£], which was the set of Outlander's 'Wentworth Prison'. The palace was originally used as a relaxing retreat for the Royal Family on trips between Edinburgh and Stirling Castle.

Our final photo stop of the day is Blackness Castle, the Headquarters of Black Jack Randall, on the shores of the Firth of Forth. Dating back to the 15th Century, its mighty fortifications make this castle look like 'a ship that never sailed'. We have time to pause for photos here before we return to Glasgow.
