Loch Ness, Glencoe and the Highlands

☆ Tour Highlights | Loch Ness Cruise, Glencoe, Fort Augustus, Pitlochry & Loch Lomond

GLENCOE

We begin our day travelling into the Highlands. First stopping on the shores of Loch Lomond and then journeying further north into majestic Glencoe. Here we experience the haunting glen where the 1692 massacre of the MacDonald clan took place, and where 007 himself walked the stunning landscape in James Bond's Skyfall.

After a lunch stop in Fort Augustus, we continue north, passing breathtaking views of Ben Nevis and the Caledonian Canal. Loch Ness is our next stop of the day; the well-known body of water is home to 'Nessie', the Loch Ness monster. You have the choice to take a relaxing boat cruise[£] or spend time exploring the beautiful village of Fort Augustus at the foot of the loch.

We then begin our return journey to the lowlands, with a pause for a short refreshment break in the Highland town of Pitlochry before we return to Glasgow.

Departing Glasgow, we travel north to the Trossachs National Park and stop at Loch Lomond, Scotland's largest loch. The area was once home to Scotland's highland folk hero, Rob Roy MacGregor. Here, you can choose to enjoy a scenic hour-long cruise[£], taking in views of the islands and surrounding mountains or spend time exploring the shores of the loch instead.

After a comfort break at Luss on the shores of the loch, we continue in the footsteps of Rob Roy MacGregor and enjoy a lunch break in Aberfoyle, a small town nestled in the heart of Scotland's first national park. We then journey to Stirling where we can either explore the city or visit its magnificent castle[£]. Situated high on volcanic rock, the castle offers tales of key historic figures such as William Wallace, Robert the Bruce, and Mary Queen of Scots, as well as stunning views of the surrounding landscape.

With lots of interesting things to see and do, Stirling Castle is well worth a visit before we return to Glasgow.

Oban, Glencoe and West Highland Castles

🌟 Tour Highlights | Oban, Inveraray and Castle, Glencoe & Loch Lomond

Leaving Glasgow, we journey northwest, travelling past the bonnie banks of Loch Lomond and stopping for refreshments in the small village of Luss. We continue through the Highlands and towards the west coast. We reach Inveraray; perched on the banks of Loch Fyne. The town was first established in 1745 by the chief of the Clan Campbell. We stop with time to explore its Castle and Gardens[£], or wander the Georgian streets of the town itself.

Leaving Inveraray, we head north, passing many dramatic locations such as Kilchurn Castle on Loch Awe. We stop for lunch in Oban with time to explore and visit McCaig's Folly – Scotland's version of the Colosseum.

Passing by Castle Stalker on Loch Laich, we will then reach the famous Glencoe valley. This is the haunting glen where the 1692 massacre of the MacDonald clan took place. It also features in the Harry Potter films and in the opening credits for the TV series Outlander.

The final stop of the day will be in the village of Tyndrum, which means "the house on the ridge" in Gaelic. It lies at the southern edge of Rannoch Moor. Enjoy a break here before heading back to Glasgow.

We begin our tour journeying north, travelling through the Loch Lomond and the Trossachs National park, hugging the shoreline of the loch. We stop at Glencoe, famous for the massacre of the MacDonald clan, and the filming location of James Bond's Skyfall and Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban.

We then travel further north, pausing near Fort William for refreshments before we reach the Road to the Isles or 'Rathann Eilean'. The area is said to have some of the most spectacular scenery in the world, with sandy beaches and dramatic hills. At the end of the road, we reach Mallaig, a scenic fishing port. Spend time here for lunch and enjoy the sea views. We then travel eastwards to see the highlight of our day, the Glenfinnan Viaduct. We arrive in time to see the Jacobite Steam Train* cross the bridge, don't forget your camera for that iconic photo! The area has wonderful views across Loch Shiel, which you might recognise as the setting for Hogwarts. The Glenfinnan area was also where Bonnie Prince Charlie launched the 1745 Jacobite Rebellion.

After Glenfinnan, our tour heads southwards, with a comfort break near the shores of Loch Lomond at Tarbet, before returning to Glasgow.
